

RESIDENCY FOR TUITION PURPOSES

A Florida “resident for tuition purposes” is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residence in Florida for at least the last consecutive 12 months. To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes you must be a U. S. citizen, permanent resident alien, or legal alien with qualifying immigration status as evidenced by INS documents. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be residents of the same state as their parents.

Step 1: Are you independent or dependent? You are INDEPENDENT if you can answer yes to any of these. You will need to provide 2 documents in your own name that are at least 12 months old by your first day of class.

1. You are 24 years of age or older by the first day of class.
2. You are married. (Copy of marriage license is required.)
3. You have children or other dependents who receive more than half of their support from you. (Copy of most recent federal income tax return listing dependents is required.)
4. You are a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces or are currently serving for purposes other than training. (Copy of DD214 or military orders is required.)
5. Both of your parents are deceased or you are or were a ward/dependent of the court. (Copy of parents’ death certificates or a court order or letter from Children and Family Services is required.)

You are DEPENDENT if you answered no to everything above. If you are DEPENDENT, your parent or legal guardian will need to provide proof of residency.

Step 2: Are you a US citizen? If you are not a US citizen, you or your parent/guardian must provide the relevant INS documents explaining your status, i.e. Resident Alien Card or Work Authorization Card.

Step 3: Provide two acceptable documents. To qualify for in-state tuition you or your parent/guardian must provide two 12 month-old documents. One document must be from Tier One. The second document may be from Tier One or Tier Two. Both documents must be dated or issued at least 12 months prior to the first day of your first term of enrollment.
